

ACQUIRING DURYSTA[®] THROUGH THE BUY-AND-BILL PROCESS

- Physician office purchases, stores, and then administers DURYSTA[®] to patient
- Many payers allow for acquisition through the buy-and-bill process
 - Medicare fee-for-service (Part B) requires buy and bill for DURYSTA[®]
 - Some payers may mandate specialty pharmacy

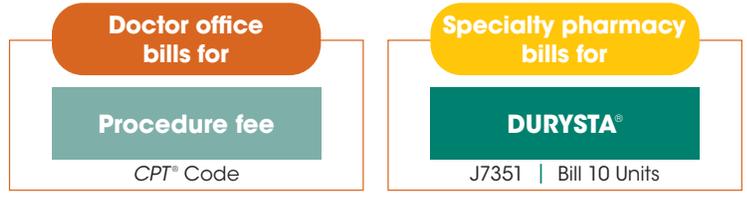

PHYSICIAN OFFICE

STEP 1	Conducts benefit verification/investigation and, if needed, prior authorization (PA) (via Allergan EyeCue [®] program or on own)*
STEP 2	Educates patient on out-of-pocket costs and, if applicable, enrolls them in the DURYSTA [®] Savings Program
STEP 3	Purchases DURYSTA [®] from Allergan, an AbbVie company [†]
STEP 4	Stores DURYSTA [®] (requires refrigeration and inventory management)
STEP 5	Collects out-of-pocket cost from patient (varies by payer and office protocol)
STEP 6	Administers DURYSTA [®] to patient
STEP 7	Submits claim, which includes cost of DURYSTA [®] and cost of professional services Submits Physician Reimbursement Request form to the DURYSTA [®] Savings Program for eligible and enrolled patients

*When receiving the benefit verification, you may learn that a specialty pharmacy is mandated by the payer. See the specialty pharmacy process on next page.
[†]Following purchase, an invoice with a 120-day payment window will be sent with the order.

ACQUIRING DURYSTA[®] THROUGH THE SPECIALTY PHARMACY PROCESS

- Physician office receives DURYSTA[®] from specialty pharmacy, stores it, and administers it to patient
- Use of a specialty pharmacy is mandated by some payers

PHYSICIAN OFFICE

- STEP 1 Conducts benefit verification/investigation and, if needed, PA (via Allergan EyeCue[®] program or on own)
- STEP 2 Educates patient on specialty pharmacy process
- STEP 3 Educates patient on out-of-pocket costs and, if applicable, enrolls them in the DURYSTA[®] Savings Program

SPECIALTY PHARMACY

- STEP 4 Contacts patient to verify information and collect copay
- STEP 5 Sends DURYSTA[®] to physician office and submits medication claim to payer

PHYSICIAN OFFICE

- STEP 6 Stores DURYSTA[®] (requires refrigeration and inventory management)
- STEP 7 Administers DURYSTA[®] to patient
- STEP 8 Submits professional services claim to payer

For more information
Website: DurystaHCP.com
Phone: 1-833-DURYSTA (1-833-387-9782)
 (select option 2 for reimbursement support) Monday-Friday 9AM-8PM ET